Appointed visiting Professor of Contemporary Theatre at St. Catherine's College, Oxford University.

CAMERON MACKINTOSH (Producer) has produced the three longest-running musicals in history: Les Misérables, The Phantom of the Opera and Cats. His co-production with Disney of Mary Poppins continues to sprinkle its magic worldwide and his newly rewritten version of Half a Sixpence is his latest London hit, winning great critical acclaim. He's currently working on film versions of Oliver! and Miss Saigon, following the hugely successful film of Les Misérables. He owns eight London theatres including the Victoria Palace which, after a major refurbishment, will re-open in November 2017 with the award-winning musical Hamilton, co-produced with Jeffrey Seller. This year, Cameron will have 22 productions running around the world, including seven in London's West End and three currently running on Broadway. Cameron was knighted in 1996 and recently was the first British producer to be elected to the Theater Hall of Fame; and the recipient of the 2017 Stephen Sondheim Award. This year marks his 50th anniversary as a producer.

RICHARD MALTBY, JR. (Lyrics). Broadway: conceived and directed two Tony Award Best Musicals: Ain't Misbehavin' (1978, also Best Director); Fosse (1999). Ring of Fire (2006). With composer David Shire: director/lyricist: Baby (1983); lyricist:
